Be sure that all FINAL POSITION Consonant sounds are put on the ends of words. In particular, the "l" sound needs to be prolonged, slightly, to be correct.

On "VOICELESS Plosive" American English sounds, the speaker tends to incorrectly make "VOICED Plosive" sounds. For example, "pen" should NOT be mispronounced as "Ben," "time" should NOT be mispronounced as "dime," "cap" should NOT be mispronounced as "gap," "chin" should NOT be mispronounced as "gin."

"Thank" should not be mispronounced as "tank" and "there" should not be mispronounced as "dare."

Be sure to learn American English DIPHTHONGS as in the words "game, tree, time, toe, flute, out or toy." Do NOT mispronounce American English "pure vowels" for the diphthongs.

Review plural words which stay the same for "one" or "more than one," such as "fish." There is no proper English word of "fishes."
